BEATEN BY TOUGHS.

Policemen Have a Desperate Struggle with a Harlem Trio.

One Stole Mrs. Cartwright's Dog and Then Kicked Her.

When Arrested He Was Rescued by His Companions.

Policemen George Reagle, of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station, and James Heany, of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station, were yesterday afternoon engaged in a desperate struggle with a trio of toughs in the vicinity of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station.

One of the trio, a negro, named Henry, was seen to steal a dog belonging to Mrs. Cartwright, who lives at the East One Hundred and Fourth street station. Henry then kicked Mrs. Cartwright, and she fell to the ground.

When the policemen arrived, they found Henry running away. They followed him, and he was arrested. However, his companions rescued him, and he escaped.

LEFT THE CHILDREN TO DIE.

David Stewart's Little Ones Found Starving.

One Taken to Hospital in a Dying Condition.

David Stewart, Jr., and his sister, Mary, aged respectively five and two years old, were found in a starving condition last night in the rooms of Patrick Blake, on the top floor of 43 East Eighteenth street, where this morning they were found by the police.

They are the offspring of David and Mary Stewart. He is a clerk in Good's News Agency, at Thirty-second street and Sixth avenue, but has not supported his family for months. The mother, with her three children, has been compelled to live on the charity of the mother and friends. Policeman Conroy, of the East Twenty-second street station, learned last night of the three starving children being in Blake's apartment.

He saw a glance that the youngest child was dying from hunger. It was removed to the hospital, and the two other children were taken to the St. Peter's hospital, where they were fed and clothed.

While the policeman was in the room, he saw that the children were in a starving condition. He saw that the children were in a starving condition.

POINTERS 'ON THE RACES.

Right on Just as Hard a Game to Beat as Ever.

Few Good Horses, but Fields Well Matched.

"EVENING WORLD" SELECTIONS.

First Race—Tough and Ready, Nick, Oxford.

Second Race—George Dixon, Stonewall, Blue Garter.

Third Race—Belle of Stonewall, St. Pauline, Etienne.

Fourth Race—Cottonade, Holofer, Reig.

Fifth Race—Charade, Tom Tough, Wist.

Sixth Race—Flip Flap, Lijero, Racephalus.

Although the exodus of good horses from Saratoga is plainly visible in the Brighton Beach programmes, the talent will have plenty to do in getting on the winners at the track, by the sea to-day.

The card is not bad one, and the events should prove interesting throughout.

Probably the best race of the day is the opening event, a five-furlong dash, in which Holofer, Nick, Oxford, Round and Ready, Panway, Oxford, Billy Boy and Holofer are entered.

The other five races look well balanced. The track should be soft and the horses in good condition.

The entries are as follows:

First Race—Tough and Ready, Nick, Oxford.

Second Race—George Dixon, Stonewall, Blue Garter.

Third Race—Belle of Stonewall, St. Pauline, Etienne.

Fourth Race—Cottonade, Holofer, Reig.

Fifth Race—Charade, Tom Tough, Wist.

SARATOGA SELECTIONS.

First Race—Deerfoot, Jewel, Sweden.

Second Race—Candelabra, Lamp-lighter.

Third Race—Galilee, Sleight of Hand, Fred Douglas.

Fourth Race—Bant, The Pepper, Del Norte.

Fifth Race—Robin Hood, Fondaine, Miss Lily.

Sixth Race—Prize, Tom Flynn, Japonica.

Two stakes are down for decision at Saratoga to-day. The first, the United States Hotel Stakes, at seven furlongs, for three-year-olds, trained out such good ones as Galilee, Sleight of Hand and Fred Douglas, and should furnish a splendid contest. The Oklahoma Steeplechase has a lot of new ones in it, but after his good showing at Guttenburg last fall, should win.

The other four, although not heavily backed, are of quality. The third race, at a mile and a sixteenth, between Lamp-lighter, Candelabra and Madrid should also furnish a good finish.

The entries are as follows:

MRS. WELTSCH'S TOOTHACHE.

Suffered So Much She May Have Become Insane.

Great Excitement in a Brighton Street Tenement.

There was a lively time last night in the Brighton Street tenement, where Mrs. Weltz, a Polish woman, lives, who has been suffering from a toothache for some time.

Mrs. Weltz's teeth had been aching for nearly a fortnight, and she had tried every remedy that was recommended to her. What between the toothache and the ache, she suffered greatly.

Finally the molars, incisors, bicuspids and the rest of her dental fixtures united in such a grand all-round way, which was supplemented by a severe pain in the side, that she was unable to get on her feet.

Her husband and a corps of willing assistants held her down on the bed, while all the women in the house yelled loud enough to wake the dead.

At the hospital her ailment was diagnosed as "melancholia," which is a nervous condition, and she was sent to the hospital.

The "melancholia" Mrs. Weltz is a native of Russia and about thirty years of age. She has been married for some time, and has a family of four children.

When she was sick, she gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

DOWNING WHIPS TOM CREED.

Savage Fight Between Brooklyn Boxers This Morning.

Referee Johnny Eckhardt Stops the Contest.

Jack Downing and Tommy Creed, both of Brooklyn, met in a fight this morning at 12th Avenue, between 1st and 2nd streets. Creed was so badly punished that he was unable to get on his feet.

The fight was for a $200 purse and a title belt. Creed was so badly punished that he was unable to get on his feet.

Creed was the favorite, due to his splendid record made as an amateur. Downing is a comparative novice at the game of punch and parry, and yet he had the opposite strategy in the second round. It was only Creed's generosity that saved him from a knockout early in the game.

Downing punished Creed savagely, and the latter bore plentiful evidence of the hard blows he had taken. Downing's punches were so heavy that Creed was unable to get on his feet.
